- C. 180° Program

Comment:

The 180° Program is a newly developed educational framework designed to be integrated into the academic school setting targeting middle school and high school age youth. Through a powerful curriculum, the 180° Program provides the opportunity and educational framework for middle school and high school youth to fully develop their internal compass so they can develop healthy goals based upon a foundation of strong personal values, reflective and critical thinking skills, and social awareness and responsibility.
