

The Student Success Team

The Student Success Team (SST) is a process of regular education. The team reviews individual student's concerns and plans ways of handling those concerns in the regular classroom. The student is selected usually through the classroom teacher (or the principal)