

West Contra Costa Unified School District

School Community Health Services

A Commitment to School Performance

well-being and strengthen school community through an integrated and coordinated approach that builds on existing resources and programs.

The District has committed resources to support a Site Coordinator in each of the 10 high schools and a School Nurse in each of the 10 high schools. The District also has committed resources to support a Site Coordinator in each of the 10 middle schools and a School Nurse in each of the 10 middle schools.

West Contra Costa Unified School District is committed to providing high quality school health services to all students from pre-K through 12th grade. The District's commitment to providing high quality school health services is an indicator of socioeconomic disadvantage.

"I know if something were ever to happen to me, I have someone to fall back on. If I need help with anything, I have a place to go."

– WCCUSD Student

launched a district-wide school health initiative in 2006 by committing resources to support a Site Coordinator in each of the 10 high schools and a School Nurse in each of the 10 high schools. The District also has committed resources to support a Site Coordinator in each of the 10 middle schools and a School Nurse in each of the 10 middle schools.

regardless of ability to pay.

The WCCUSD School Health Initiative is a commitment to providing high quality school health services to all students from pre-K through 12th grade. The District's commitment to providing high quality school health services is an indicator of socioeconomic disadvantage.

and wellness services in all WCCUSD high schools.

there are always willing to help you out and give you what you need through something or just when you need someone to talk to."

– WCCUSD Student

Washoe County Unified School District

School Community Partnership

A Community School Approach