School Resource Officers: Every secondary school site receives services from the local law enforcement agency in their region. The LCAP pays $1.3 million which represents half of the overall cost.

Step 1: The SSC members directly review the effectiveness of previous strategies by using formative and summative data or the SSC delegate this step to the site