Friday Memo
February 9, 2018

West Contra Costa Unified School District
Office of the Superintendent performance at the middle and high school is rooted in underperformance and low student self concept in math established at elementary level).

At the middle and high school, we will offer the REACH Math Single subject credentialing program to provide quality Math instruction to students in the two Kennedy Family secondary schools (Helms and Kennedy

We are excited about this great opportunity for our teachers, as well as the future positive impact that it will have for our students.
